G.F. File No. 49 of 1922.

Serial No.

For the period of 6 years during which the lower limit of Rs.1000/- has been permitted there has been only 8 cases. During the last 3 years two cases are reported.

In the order of 8-10-1919 it is stated that further expension of period is subject to the condition that there is any necessity to do so.

Whether in these circumstances the concession has to be extended for any further period is for orders.

There is no objection to extend the period for acceptance of small endowments. But it will be seen from particulars noted above that there is no need for a general order as the cases are extreme few. If any donors propose endowments between Rs.1000/- and Rs.5000/- they may be accepted. It is enough in such circumstances, to inform the Education or Murrai Secretariats which alone deal with such cases to note this understanding. It is not necessary to issue a general order extending the period

The power of accepting endowments and Pudwat deposits was recently transferred to the Mun: Commissioner. If there is no need for the issue of a Govt order reducing the minimum of charitable deposits to Rs 500, as noted by the Financial Secretary, it is a point for orders as to whether the Mun: Comr may be intimated by means of a letter that Govt may see fit charitable deposits to a minimum of Rs 1000.

Sir,

I am directed to state that in G.O. no. Fl 2684-93/G.F. 124-16-1 & 30-11-16, the minimum of Rs 3000 fixed for Charitable Institutions was reduced to Rs 1000 temporarily for a period of three years and again in G.O. no. Fl 2211-20/G.F 41 19-4 & 8-10-19 the concession was extended for period of three years.

As during the period of six years only a few have availed themselves of the concession, Govt have not considered it necessary to issue a general order extending the period. Further if any donor should, however, offer endowments between Rs 1000 & Rs 3000, they may be accepted, until further
